Détail de la formation :Désignation : Regnology Finance Hub – Business Rules Engine for Finance (FF2)Contenu et objectifs :

Part of the Regnology Finance Hub, this 1-day seminar will provide you with a practice-oriented introduction to Maestro, the Business Rules Engine for Finance. Acquaint yourself with the basic concepts of the tool, its configuration, and functionalities, so that after completing the seminar you will be able to effectively create and manage business rules.

By doing exercises in a live system, participants will utilise and deepen the seminar content.

Audience

This training is aimed at business users who will be responsible for configuring and maintaining business rules within the Finance modules. No prior knowledge is required.

Technology Requirements (applies to webinars)

Webinars will be held using a video conferencing tool. If required, Regnology conducts a short test conference call before the actual webinar date, to ensure that technology requirements are met at participants' end.

Trainers and Language

All our trainers are employees of Regnology. Due to their extensive practical experience and their well-structured training approach, they will provide you with the knowledge required for your daily working with the Business Rules Engine for Finance.

The training will be held in English.
